District 2 Leads All Village Again In Clean-Up Drive

Official Inspection Trip by Bennett, Police and Fire Chiefs, Reveals Piles Of Rubbish Around Town are Going Fast

District Two which includes the Indian Reservation, is leading all other districts in the Village in the number of truck loads of rubbish and trash hauled away since the Clean-up campaign started October 6.

NOTHING TO IT—Frank Sinatra, Villager and noted singer who again denied yesterday that he said he didn't like Palm Springs any more.

Sinatra's Denial Of Village Slur Now World-Wide

Frank Sinatra, home owner who lives in Palm Springs come summer and winter, told the world yesterday with some vehemence that it was his press agent, not he who made disparaging remarks about the Village. Earlier this week the same announcements had appeared exclusively in The Sun.

The crooner further declared that the premature announcement by his agent Jack Keller of his plan to build a rival winter resort along the Salton Sea, was all wet, too.

It was the announcement by Keller about the proposed resort area coupled with a statement attributed to Sinatra that "Palm Springs was too crowded and the weather bad," that brought forth the denial by the singer and the declaration that he was through with plans for building a $2,000,000 winter resort along the shores of Salton Sea.

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Lives there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself has said:
"Gee, Palm Springs' great
It's really swell,
But where're the lights?
It's dark as
The proverbial black hole of Calcutta!"

This being a family newspaper I can't use the word "hell" although that is what rhymes with swell, also well, tell, pellmell and tell, the latter what I feel like I'm doing going to work before seven a. m. when it's really only six a. m. and the sun isn't up. . . . But if this sun wasn't up before the sun was up, The Sun might not get up.

IN PALM SPRINGS they do things differently. . . . For which all should be thankful. . . . Monotony is dreadful. . . . But just consider this little incident. . . . In other towns the kids take bright red apples, all neatly polished, to their teachers, thus giving writers, stuck for an expression, a polite term for chislers—polishing the apple. . . . But leave it to a Palm Springs youngster to put a desert twist to the old time honored custom. . . . Clark Moorten, son of Chester and Patricia Moorten, starting school this year, heard of the practice of taking an apple to teacher and thus avoiding sundry consequences of any misadventures. . . . So he went out and plucked himself a cactus apple, right off a cactus in his parents' garden, polished it and gave it RUGGED WORK—Workmen probing the sub-surface sites of the towers that will sustain the weight of the tramway cars to the hidden valleys of Mt. San Jacinto, are half finished with the job.

Tram Authority Threat To Water To Meet Sunday Supply Revealed By Caltech Dean

Members of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, scheduled to meet at The Desert Inn Sunday, will receive a first hand progress report of work now being conducted on the tramway route, from Elmer Lloyd, American Steel and Wire Company tramway engineer and John Steelman, construction engineer in charge of the survey now half completed.

The two men are expected to tell Park Authority members that the sub-surface survey of the tramway route on which the giant towers will stand, is half completed and that the crew is now working from a camp approximately half way up Mt. San Jacinto.

Safety Week Program Backed By VFW Post

Palm Springs post VFW this week joined other VFW posts in the nation in a safety campaign to make the public, from school children to adults, safety conscious. C. S. Bassett, commander said yesterday.

The banner, "Today is Safety Day," displayed on the streets, is part of the program.

Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann, Fire Chief Bill Leoneas and other civic leaders will give talks to school youngsters and other observances are planned by Bassett.

A safety slogan contest will be conducted and awards will go to the winner.

The book, "Invitation to Live," a book designed to acquaint the public with the causes of accidents and how to avoid them will be given wide distribution in the Village during the campaign.

Heated Cooler Smokes 'em Up

It was rather ironical—but with the weather a bit crisp in the desert Tuesday, a fire which started in a cooler, did damage at Randall Henderson's new Desert Magazine plant at Palm Desert Tuesday.

A short circuit in the cooler started the blaze but the damage was almost nil, being confined to that caused by the clouds of black smoke which poured from the installation.

Convention's Value to City Is Estimated at $100,000

Village merchants and workmen profited to the extent of approximately $100,000 as a result of the fourth annual Menswear Manufacturers' association convention in Palm Springs October 29, 30, and 31.

The estimated amount of money left in the Village was made by Knute Thorsen, chairman of the event this year and Wal Spaulding, publicity chairman for Los Compadres, riding organization which held its fifth annual Western Week simultaneously.

Thorsen said that, including labor used in erecting the giant outdoor stage for the fashion show, money spent in Palm Springs with restaurants, hotels and stores amounted to $20,000 on the first day Friday Nov. 29, between $25,000 and $30,000 Saturday and more than $40,000 on Sunday, the final day of the convention.

George Strebe, owner of The Doll House, who was awarded a luscious looking ham at the Fall Home Coming Frolic, will not enjoy the benefit of carving huge slices out of it for ham sandwiches.

He reported to police at 3:36 a. m. Thursday morning that some hungry individual had stolen the ham from his automobile parked at The Stables. Police are seeking the heartless crook.

Way Found To Clean Up Indian Land

Woelke Cites Law Which May be Used In Sanitation Plan

Dr. Robert E. Westphal, county health officer, Monday told supervisors the way had been cleared for cleaning up Indian lands but that it would probably be early next year before action could be taken.

He said that Walter V. Woelke, state director of Indian agencies, had told him that he had found a law in which the secretary of Interior had laid down the procedure for sanitation and health law enforcement on Indian lands.

UNDER THE PROCEDURE, the state and county health departments are to draw up the regulations they want to enforce and the Indian Agency will post them on the reservations so the Indians can see them and prepare any complaints they might wish to make.

Then the regulations with the complaints are to be forwarded to Washington for a ruling. Dr. Westphal guessed it would take about 45 days before he could actually begin cleaning up.

THE BIGGEST sanitation problem on the Indian lands, Dr. Westphal said, is not with the Indians but with the trailers and shacks of non-Indians squatting on the land.

Many of the trailers and shacks have no sewage disposal facilities and the people in them often "live like pigs," he said.

He said there were 1500 people alone living in buildings on the Agua Caliente Reservation just outside Palm Springs which would probably have to be condemned.

"I don't know where they'll go," he said.

THERE ARE EIGHT reservations in Riverside county where the health department hopes to enforce sanitary measures for the first time.

They are the Agua Caliente reservation, at Palm Springs, the Santa Rosa reservation south of Palm Springs, the Cabazon reservation near Indio, the Morongo reservation near Banning, the Cañuilla and Ramona reservation near Anza, The Soboba reservation near Hemet and the Martinez reservation near Mecca.

Since being in Miami friends have been waging a fight with immigration authorities to keep Avak in this country. At present there is a special bill pending in congress to grant Avak permission to remain.

There has been considerable talk in past months of returning Avak to this area. The plan at that time, and it may be so now, was to build a temple for the faith healer near Indio as a Mecca for the halt, the lame and the blind.

Not Mad, Just Disillusioned Says Delano

Phil Delano wasn't mad yesterday, he was amazed and this amazement had a ragged fringe of disappointment.

Early last week a friend, he had not seen in years passing through town, touched Delano for $20, food, and railroad fare to El Centro where, he said, a job was waiting.

"That was okeh," declared Delano. "But yesterday the bank notified me that a draft for $150 was waiting to be paid signed by this so-called friend of mine. What a way to get an additional loan."

Village Escapes as Gale Hits Southland

Palm Springs escaped with but a few puffs of wind Tuesday night in a general norther that swept most of the southland for 48 hours. Gusts ranged from 30 to 50 miles an hour and Los Angeles reported a few 80-mile blasts.

Wanted—Automobiles for Visiting Aerial Caravan

Both the Junior chamber of commerce and the Palm Springs chamber of commerce today issued a call seeking assistance of automobile owners to transport approximately 150 flyers expected to land at the Palm Springs airport Saturday.

The aviators are members of the National Skyways Association who will be converging on Palm Springs from many parts of the state. First planes are expected to land at 1 p. m.

Village May Again Become Avak's Home

Armenian Faith Healer Interviewed Via Long Distance

Avak Hagopian, Armenian faith healer may return to Palm Springs.

In response to the plea of the many friends Avak made in Palm Springs during the spring of 1947, after having traveled half way around the world to the Village at the invitation of K. Arakelian, millionaire winter resident, D. Arakelian, a son, via long distance, telephone to Miami, Florida, Wednesday, asked Avak if he wanted to return to Palm Springs.

ASKED TO LISTEN in on the conversation held in the Armenian tongue, a Desert Sun reporter had Vaughn Aiehan interpret D. Arakelian's side of the conversation.

Arakelian first informed the faith healer that he was asked to call him by friends in Palm Springs seeking his return to the Village and "and do you want to come back here?"

In answer to this question, Arakelian reported that Avak said he did.

There was no interpretation of Avak's answer to this question but Arakelian declared that the faith healer is "anxious to return to Palm Springs."

He asked, said Arakelian, that a letter be addressed to him personally outlining the invitation and he would make a formal reply.

Avak has been in Miami, Florida since leaving Palm Springs and after a faith healing tour of the Pacific Coast which ended abruptly.

Since being in Miami friends have been waging a fight with immigration authorities to keep Avak in this country. At present there is a special bill pending in congress to grant Avak permission to remain.

There has been considerable talk in past months of returning Avak to this area. The plan at that time, and it may be so now, was to build a temple for the faith healer near Indio as a Mecca for the halt, the lame and the blind.

Avak will be remembered, was brought to this country by K. Arakelian in an effort to heal Vaughn, epileptic son of the millionaire vintner.

$10,000 Blaze At Rancho Mirage

Fire swept the uncompleted home Walden Ducau is building at Rancho Mirage last week and completely destroyed it. Loss was estimated at $10,000. Cause is still unknown.

Two forestry department trucks responded to the alarm and fought vainly to control the flames.

Terebieniec Will Be Sentenced Nov. 22

Charles K. Terebieniec, charged with assault with intent to commit rape, is awaiting sentence scheduled for Nov. 22, on the charge.

In superior court at Riverside Monday he pleaded guilty.

He was accused of entering the home of a 50-year-old woman and threatening her.

VILLAGER—Jim Davis, former governor of Louisiana and a nationally-known figure who this week joined a flock of other notables in becoming a Villager.

Former Executive Of Louisiana Now a Villager

Ex-Governor Jim Davis of Louisiana, this week joined other nationally famous winter residents in Palm Springs by leasing a home and announcing that his family would arrive in the Village from Shreveport, Louisiana, in the next two or three days.

"I plan to take an active part in civic affairs of the community, join the chamber of commerce and do my utmost to become a worthy citizen of Palm Springs," declared Davis.

On November 19 The Stables which Governor Davis leased will formally open to the public for the season. On hand for entertainment will be his "Sunshine band," musical aggregation that toured with him during his campaign for the governorship of Louisiana.

The former Louisiana state executive promised that many of the dishes native to his home state will be served during the season at The Stables.

Wednesday night Davis and his band furnished part of the entertainment and the dance music for the crowds that attended the Fall Home Coming Frolic.

Announce Marriage

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Lester Klein to Miss Grace Horning, at Riverside, Oct. 3. Klein has been a winter resident here for four years.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

INTERESTING TRIP: Villagers and winter residents who haven't been out that way in the last year or two will enjoy the trip through Great Morongo Basin and will be surprised at the development going on there. Go out Indian avenue to highway 99, jog to the right a short distance to the Twenty-nine Palms highway—and you're on the way. The first settlement is Morongo Valley, dotted with ranches, small homes and business establishments. From there the road climbs steadily to 3500 where it reaches broad, beautiful Yucca Valley, characterized by a profusion of the cacti from which it gets its name. Surrounding the business center at Yucca Valley are several subdivisions, including Yucca Vista and Juniper Heights. The side trip north from here to Pioneertown is one you shouldn't miss. This picturesque western town is certainly worth seeing—and good food will be found at the Golden Stallion amid very pleasant surroundings.

Back on the 29 Palms highway, we are soon in the forest of giant Joshua trees—and more new development. The City of Mental-physies, built by a world-wide religious organization, is an amazing project which is just getting under way. Nearby is the new desert town of Joshua Tree, which has sprung up from almost nothing in the past four years. Its wide streets, new buildings, beautiful vistas and 3000-foot altitude make it attractive to real lovers of the desert. Another short side trip north leads to Sunny-side and Sun Valley Acres, famous for turkey ranches. Just south of Joshua Tree is the new 3000-acre development of Villager Jim Whitehorn, known as Whitehorn Ranch. It runs from the highway back to the foothills and commands a breath-taking view of Morongo Basin.

Straight as the surveyor's instruments could make it, the highway continues to 29 Palms, oldest and largest community in The Morongo Basin. Its growth will surprise anyone who has not visited there in the last two years. Divided for many years into two sections which fought for leadership as the business center, the community has been tied together by some smart developer who built up the main street between the two sections.

Most important part of the whole trip is the visit to the Joshua Tree National Monument—a wonderland of rocks. It is just a short distance from 29 Palms and you can take the road that leads through the park and comes back to the 29 Palms highway at Joshua Tree. Don't miss the little drive off the main park road that takes you to Keys view point—for a gorgeous view of Coachella Valley and the Salton Sea.

Make it a day's trip sometime . . . you'll enjoy it!

Pittman Charges Guiberson Misrepresenting Ownership Of Land in Area Near City

Samuel A. Guiberson and his proposed cement plant, eight miles northwest of Palm Springs came in for another verbal blast this week when County Supervisor Walter V. Pittman again charged misrepresentation in the campaign to win support in the cement company's battle against a county zoning ordinance which bars heavy industry in this area.

At Tuesday's meeting of supervisors Pittman declared that Guiberson had falsified statements as to his land holding in Riverside county.

Last week Congressman John Phillips said that the statement by Guiberson that he had been ordered to construct the cement plant by federal directive could not be substantiated.

Phillips claimed that Federal records in Washington showed no such authority.

Pittman in his charges this week declared:

"In a statement before this board Guiberson said he owned 1500 acres of land valued at $135,000 in the county. If so, then I think the county assessor could start action to collect back taxes from him."

Before the meeting Pittman informed newsmen that a check of Guiberson's land holdings at the County Recorder's office failed to disclose that the Texas oilman owned nearly as much land as he had claimed.

One Killed, One Hurt in Crash

W. W. Ford, 59, of Huntington Park, was killed and his son, James M. Ford, was seriously hurt when their automobile ran off highway 99 near Indio Monday.

Their deaths brought the total traffic casualty list in the county to 86 for the year, compared with 65 at the corresponding date last year.

REFRESHMENTS—Willard Price, Cathedral City, author of "Roving South" gets a bit of cooling refreshment from a coconut while on tour.

Latin Americas Vividly Portrayed

Do you like to do your traveling sitting in a soft arm chair? Or are you planning to take a tour of South America and need an excellent guide?

Then the latest book by Willard Price of Cathedral City, will be just the thing.

Published by the John Day company of New York, "Roving South, Rio Grande to Patagonia" touches the vast territory to the south of us from Mexico through the Amazon country, the Andes, Patagonia and back up the east coast to Rio and home. It is a fascinating story of travel and a super-guide to the Latin-American nations.

Willard Price, a resident of Cathedral City, and his wife covered 23,000 miles in 27 lands to gather the material for this latest book by the desert area author.

The book takes the reader down the Pan-American highway, across the Andes, along the Amazon, into little-known places and through superb terrain. In all there is a newsmen's instinct for a good story, a sense of humor and a sympathetic understanding of what he saw.

Author Price wrote "Japan's Islands of Mystery" some time ago and during the recent war, this book was a "must" with United States naval officers seeking an insight on Japanese possessions.

Desert residents will meet the author at a reception at the Cathedral City home of Virginia Colville of the Palm Springs Book store Sunday afternoon.

Operation Costs Topic of County Red Cross Board

Operation economies consistent with its policy of providing maximum service to the public and military forces, which have been instituted by the Riverside county chapter, American Red Cross, were approved by the new board of directors Monday at its first meeting under J. Earl Collins, president-elect.

First step of the streamlining procedure has been accomplished with a modified policy in connection with financial assistance to veterans through the home service department at headquarters and in all 15 branches. Under this policy money aid will be extended only to those veterans with original claims pending for service connected disabilities, Collins said.

Staff cuts in home service and home nursing were instituted this week. No loss of service will result, since the work handled by the former employees will be apportioned among other staff members.

Other economies will result from the closing of rented work rooms, garage and storage space no longer needed since the construction of the addition on headquarters property. This structure was financed with the balance of an old building fund allocated to the chapter from the national organization several years ago. Collins also announced plans for monthly board meetings and increased public information activities.

More Trouble Ahead of Him

When Arthur W. Athey completes his thirty day sentence for being drunk in the San Bernardino county jail he may exchange the uniform they wear in that place for one worn by inmates of Riverside county jail, if any.

Athey will be brought back to Palm Springs where he will face Judge Eugene E. Theriault for violation of parole on a drunk conviction here.

Victory Dance Great Success

In what is planned to be an annual affair, Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion last night staged their first Armistice Day Victory dance.

Dancing started at 8 p. m. and continued until 1 a. m. this morning. Music was by Pat Barbara and his band and the large throng attending had a gay time.

Social Council To be Organized

Next meeting in a program designed to establish a social service council for Palm Springs will be held Nov. 17 under plans drawn at the original meeting of the group at the Youth Center October 20. Representatives of recreation, social and welfare groups were at the meeting.

Mrs. L. N. Jackson, co-director of the Youth Center, is temporary chairman of the group and the meeting will be at the Center.

Supervisors Want Prison Farm Site

County supervisors gave notice this week that they were in the market for from 70 to 100 acres to be used as a prison camp site. But Villagers need not worry. The notice stipulated that the acreage should be in a rural area within 25 miles of the county seat.

CHAIRMAN—J. E. Collins, county Red Cross head, who urged operation economies to insure maximum funds for needed causes.

Picnic Meeting Planned Monday

Hotel and apartment owners and operators will mix business with pleasure Monday morning when they gather for their annual powwow.

The pleasure will take the form of a breakfast ride either in the saddle or on buckboard and wagon, furnished by the operators of stables in the Village. Jack Boyer will furnish his chuckwagon and the victuals when the hotel men arrive at the scene of the breakfast, Desert Cove, south of the Casitas Del Monte.

A prominent speaker on resort travel will address the group which will be presided over by Stanley Rosin, chairman of the Hotel and Apartment House committee. Nonmembers of the chamber are also invited to attend.

Supervisors Not Decided on Plan For Recreation

County supervisors were still undecided on a county recreation program this week.

They heard another proposed recreation plan Monday from the county recreation committee, a group of citizens headed by Frank H. Gibson, and from all appearances they were not impressed.

The recreation committee's plan involved hiring recreation leaders, purchasing equipment, vehicles for transportation and office furnishings.

Supervisors had set up only $15,000 to take care of the county's recreation needs for the entire year.

Last week they had turned a cold shoulder on Supervisor Ed Hill's plan for a recreation program supervised by personnel already employed by the county.

Southwest's Application Gets Backing

Representatives of Two Counties Vote 100 Per Cent O. K.

Belief that Palm Springs and other cities in the desert area may soon be on a proposed new aerial route was expressed by President John H. Connelly, of Southwest Airways who addressed a group representing Riverside and San Bernardino county communities in Banning Monday.

Representing Palm Springs were Mayor Charley Farrell and City Manager William E. Alworth. Also present were supervisors from Riverside and San Bernardino counties and officials from Banning, Beaumont, Riverside, Indio, Blythe and Hemet.

THE MEETING, which followed luncheon at the San Geronimo Inn, was a joint session of the Citrus Belt League of California Cities and the Banning chamber of commerce.

Cornelius Sullivan, counsel for Southwest, told those present: "With six years of preparation you are now in sight of the last step, the culmination of your efforts for a progressive step that means the growth and progress of your communities."

HE ADDED the decision on the part of CAB in Washington on his company's application may be made within the next 30 to 90 days.

He stressed the growth of the citrus belt area as deserving and in need of the service his company could render. Many present arose to voice the same opinion.

Congressman John Phillips declared that the proposed feeder line would benefit, either directly or indirectly, 10 million residents of the southwest.

With approximately 200 present, a resolution was unanimously passed to support the application of Southwest Airlines for a feeder passenger service to cities throughout the citrus belt now pending before the civil aeronautics board in Washington, D. C.

BARRING A HEAVY AGENDA, it was said, hearing of the application is expected to occur in mid-December. If favorably acted upon, twice-a-day aerial service to Palm Springs and other communities represented by those present at the meeting will be in effect by next summer.

That promise was made by Connelly.

Kaiser's Mine In Operation
Henry Kaiser's rich Eagle mountain iron ore mine on the desert to the east of Palm Springs and its 52-mile railroad went into full operation Tuesday with newsmen looking on, flown to the scene from Ontario airport. Twenty-eight carloads of 60 tons each will be shipped daily from Eagle Mountain to Fontana, Kaiser, owner of the project, said he hopes to double the shipments within six months.

Double Trouble For Suspect
Trouble doubled for C. D. Wilson, negro, in police custody on suspicion of passing worthless checks.

Several hours after his arrest Constable Fred Duffy, who had been seeking Wilson to serve court judgment in a civil action, tapped him for $105 due a local merchant.

The attachment was served on the Palm Springs police department custodian of Wilson's property while he awaited the arrival of Los Angeles police to take him to that city where the check charges were lodged.

Post Office Department Opposes Air Line Appeal

United States postoffice department following through on an original protest lodged against the application of the Southwest Airways to serve Palm Springs and six other communities in Riverside county, is now said standing fast on its original complaint before the civil aeronautics board in Washington, D. C.

This was the report made to supervisors by County Airport Director Ted Hannah this week.

HE SAID that postal officials are opposing the Southwest Airline application on the grounds that air postal service by feeder service is not economically practicable.

Hannah further declared that if the postoffice department did not defeat the application, it would try to delay it for several years until present feeder line experiments have been completed and studied.

Fire Prevention Program Planned For Year 'Round

Fire Chief Bill Leonasio who returned Friday from Sacramento where he attended the annual four-day Fire Chiefs' Convention, plans to inaugurate a plan of fire-prevention for "not only one week during the year but for 52 weeks."

He said that this point brought out during the four-day sessions impressed him much and was quickly accepted by those present as a worthwhile program.

"Fire prevention week observed nationally once a year has proved successful in many communities," Leonasio said. "The convention taught me that fire-prevention could be extended to include 52 weeks with proper education to the threats of fire that lie hidden around homes."

He added that the entire convention was highly educational and was well attended.

Elk's Meeting Slated Tonight At Fiesta House

Elk Club organizers and prospective members are scheduled to meet in the Fiesta House of the Desert Inn at 8 o'clock tonight, according to Bill Moore, chairman of the organizing committee.

Membership applications will again be accepted and plans for the construction of an Elks meeting hall will be discussed and examined.

Hospital Group To Meet Nov. 22

Plans for a vigorous campaign to insure success of the Hospital District program in the Palm Springs area will be drawn a week from next Monday, Nov. 22, at the Fiesta House when Chairman Kenneth Kirk of the committee meets with the full group working on the proposal.

The election is scheduled for December 14.

Chairman Kirk of the organizing committee of more than 100 residents of the Village and surrounding area, is confident the district will be voted but plans a campaign to make the approval convincing.

X-Ray Unit Will Be in City Next Monday at Plaza

Villagers were reminded again yesterday that the mobile X-ray unit of the County Tuberculosis association will be stationed at the Plaza November 15, 16, and 17, and that the X-ray picture will not cost anyone submitting themselves for an examination a cent.

Mrs. Madge Holderman, public health nurse, particularly invited food handlers to turn out for pictures and all employers of such personnel are asked to make arrangements to give workers time off for the occasion.

"It only takes a few minutes to have the picture taken," said Nurse Holderman. "No one will be inconvenienced."

Board Passes Up Buying Building

Supervisors again this week debated purchase of an abandoned county seat church building but failed to come to a decision.

They have already purchased the land on which the building stands, Dr. Robert E. Westphal will survey the structures to see if they can be converted into a health department and Supervisor James L. Easley suggested they be used as an extra court room.

KITCHEN TRICK

FOR QUICK candied sweet potatoes, peel and boil them until almost tender, then add sugar and butter to the water and let it cook down low. A sprinkling of grated orange rind helps the flavor.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

COOK SPAGHETTI or macaroni in a large strainer (your french frying basket will do) inside a kettle. Thus you combine lifting and draining in one simple operation.

RECIPE

RED KIDNEY BEANS, CREOLE

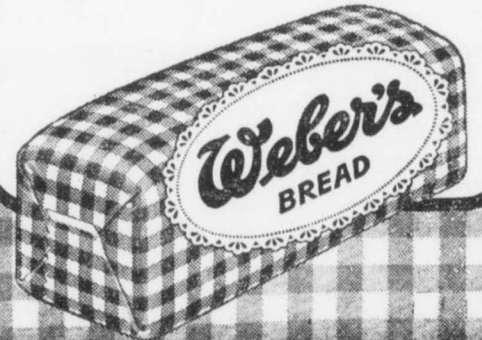

- 2 cups red kidney beans
- 1 minced green pepper
- 1 can Vienna sausage
- 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
- 1 clove garlic
- Salt, cayenne
- 1 minced onion
- Celery salt

Soak beans overnight; simmer slowly in salted water until tender. Cut sausage in pieces and cook slowly in skillet with garlic, onion and green pepper. Remove garlic, add tomatoes; season with salt, cayenne and celery salt. Add beans, mix well and cook until thoroughly heated. Serves 4.

Landlords Advised on Use
Of Short Form Petitions

B. C. Barnes, vice-chairman of Riverside rent advisory board, and George J. MacDonald, local area rent director, joined today in calling the attention of the landlords to the provisions of the new, simplified "Short Form" petition for rent increases available to landlords owning four or less rental units.

They said that by using this form (Form D-58A) such landlords could obtain rent increases to compensate for the higher cost of taxes, fuel, utilities and insurance, even though the landlord may not have kept complete books.

ACCORDING TO BARNES, the simplified short form petition is particularly important in that it answers requests for a procedure whereby "small" non-professional landlords could obtain hardship adjustments without submitting complete income and expense statements.

MacDonald pointed out that under the new procedure, landlords owning four or less rental units show current costs of taxes alone, or, if they choose, taxes and any one or all of fuel, utilities and insurance costs. In comparison to the same expenses during a two year base period.

"SUBSTANTIATING records in the form of receipted bills must still be furnished," MacDonald said, "but if not available, signed statements may be obtained from the tax assessors office, and the companies involved."

Mr. Barnes said that to judge from the relatively small number of eligible landlords who had applied for rent increases, knowledge of the new simplified procedure was not widespread, and that it was important that landlords should be fully informed of their rights under the housing and rent law.

New Plan for GI
Loans Explained
By Housing Head

An increase in the interest rate of GI home loans from 4% to 4½% would not increase the cost of a veteran's residence to as much as the new FHA Title II and GI combined loans, it was explained by H. F. Dunton of Altadena, newly appointed vice-chairman of the new VFW housing committee for California.

The VFW, together with the Veterans Organizations council of Altadena, Los Angeles county council of Amvets and other groups have urged Administrator Carl R. Gray Jr. of the Veterans Administration to exercise his authority to increase the GI interest rate as a spur to home construction here.

"The Title II and GI combined deals will cost more than a straight GI purchase, because on top of the Title II interest rate of 4½% is a ½% FHA service or insurance charge," Dunton said. "Unless Gray raises the GI in-

Too Much Fight Behind Banning Team Last Week

By CHUCK BLACKHART

About the only excuse I have to offer for the results of last Friday's encounter between Banning and Palm Springs was the Indians were defeated by a more determined squad of pigskinners.
The final score read Palm Springs 8, Banning 23.

In the first quarter the Indians stopped the Bronchos cold but couldn't seem to punch over a tally of their own even though they were inside the 20-yard line several times.

The Indian squad couldn't seem to function in the strong wind that hindered our punts and passes and our running game wasn't clicking against the Banning forward wall. Of course Banning had the same wind to play against but their running line, breaking their hard candidate for all league honors.
Fullback George Pelonis, away for long gains through the Indian line.

Palm Springs tally came with Eddie Weiss busting through tackle for a 25-yard jaunt to the happy hunting grounds.
The Indians were dealt a bad blow when Dale Summers, our first string linebacker, had his leg injured in the second quarter.

One of the most unusual things about the game was the fact that Banning scored two safeties on the Indians.

Next week the Indians take on a fighting aggregation from Coachella and hope to get into the win column.

It's going to be a home game so let's fill up those stands and support the team.

Hockey Season Now Under Way

Hockey season is on it's way and will soon be played at P. S.
H. S. by the girl's physical education classes.

The game is played on the football field. Six girls make up a team. Each team has a halfback, fullback, one inner, one wing, a center and a goal keeper.

GAZOOZIT

By BROWNIE

T. G. I. F. (meaning "Thank Goodness It's Friday") for the benefit of those who are green to our desert slang. Ah yes, it's great to be alive—specially after our Armistice holiday.

Since this week-end isn't in full swing yet, let's hail Father Time and review last week's events—joy, perils, and otherwise.

Friday afternoon comes under the classification P.—for perils.
Banning, U.S.A., was the scene of the crime—but our team went down fighting—nuff said. Our routing section contributed their two cents even after frost-bite set in—among those cold but brave supporters huddled Nancy Nye, Barbara Thompson, Betty
Wright, Sandra Veano, Adele
Woods, Flavin Duet, Anna Mae
Houghton, Dick Day, Ben Chaffey, Nickey Nichols (temporary rooster "til his leg recuperates"), Delorous Gardner, Gale Jones,
Jack Gallant (ahem), Bob Den-
tise, Byron Norris, Dick Henson, (seems like old times when he deceivers those cheerers) and many, many more.

Friday night at the Coachella Carnival our Braves lost to Banning again but made up for it by defeating Beaumont later in the evening. If you thought Banning was cold you should have been in India—br-r-rrr! But never say die. P. S. supporters were spotted with my one good eye and the total was numerous.
Ronnie French was heard developing his lung muscles strenuously, along with Pierce Kibby; Arlene Southworth and Bob Nor-din were seen sitting beside Penny Haley and Kenny Jackson
(it must run in the family, huh, Penny?); and none other than

Adele Woods and Bill Hotchkiss were spied watching the game intently.

Saturday night your faithful eyewitness heard tell of no such thing as a party but Betty and Fort, Mable and Eddie, Chuck, Vickie, Katie and others were seen at the show. Many students skipped town for the evening.
The Nash sisters to Redlands,
Ella to L.A., Dick Clarke, David Harper, and Corkey Hammond to Pomona, and Ned and Luke to all points east.

Since Sunday is the day of rest,
I will not labor on it—thus we have Monday. If you passed the Chi Chi that evening you probably saw two pajama-clad, coldcreamed, picketing sleepwalkers
alias Penny Haley and Adele Woods who were being initiated for the Maammbap's. Never a dull moment.

Well I've rambled enough for one week so I'll pop the question now.

"Will all the Daisy Mae's get their Lil Abners—hum-m-mm?"

Platter Chatter

Craig Hammond Named President Of Honor Society

On October 26, 1948, the Scholarship Society of Palm Springs High School held its annual election of officers. Those elected to the positions are:

President, Craig Hammond;
vice president, Marshall Thompson; secretary, Mary Pendrey;
treasurer, Mary Katherine Mills.

The retiring president, Barbara Thompson, turned the gavel over to Craig Hammond who conducted the remainder of the meeting. Before the past president made this move, however, she made the announcement that two of the members have reached one of the highest attainments offered by the Scholarship Society, Barbara Jones and Sandra Veano are Seal Bearers in this National society which means that they are lifetime members.
To receive this honor, one must be a member of the local society for six semesters of high school.

Library Given Book Written By Solom Rizk

Last year a special assembly was called and the speaker, Solom Rizk, racked the assembly with his hilariously funny antics.
He had just completed his autobiography and it was this story he told the assembly. Upon completing his speech he presented the school library with an autographed copy of his book, "Syrian Yankee."

Solom Rizk was born in 1909
in a small poverty-stricken town in Syria. He grew up a Syrian, but at the age of twelve he discovered that his mother had been an American citizen and that he could claim American citizenship. He had two brothers in Iowa and they financed his passage to the United States. He arrived in New York penniless and with no knowledge of our language. He had waited five years in Beirut until his Syrian Yankee identity was finally established and he was allowed to enter the United States. In an amazingly short time he began his career of lecturing under the auspices of the Reader's Digest.

The story of his almost unbelievable experience in self-education and his rise to be one of the most sought after and inspirational speakers on American lecture platforms, is all contained in "Syrian Yankee."

Athlete of Week

JAY HUGHES

Filling a vital spot at first string tackle again this year, and picked for "Athlete of the Week," is Jay Hughes. He came to Palm Springs High School three years ago from Reno, Nevada, and now is a junior. He will be one of the many returning lettermen next year which gives high hopes for the team of '50.

Jay was born in Sacramento in 1932 and has attended many elementary schools. He plans to study law and hopes to carry on with his athletic career after graduation from Palm Springs
High School.

All Girl Cast To Present Play

"Sparkin," a one act farce on hillbilly love, will be presented by the Palm Springs high school dramatics class today in recognition of Sadie Hawkins Day.
As there are only two boys in the class, and they are unavailable, the play has an all girl cast. In the part of Orry, the tobacco chewing swain, there is Vickie Matloff, dressed as a male.
Jackie Kingsbury plays the rebellious grandma, Sandra Veano, the mother, and Connie
Nash plays the love stricken Lessie.

Other plays to be given soon are: "Smell of Powder," Nov. 24, and the three act play, "Nine Girls" which John Shwendiman's class of actors will present in the 3rd week of December.

Volunteer Firemen Have Busy Week With 3 Calls

The Volunteer Fire department had a busy day last Tuesday when three calls came beginning with one at breakfast time at the De Luxe Trailer court, caused by an overheated stove which was put out with a fire extinquisher before the truck arrived. Around noon a brush fire called them out again on a wild goose chase, and in the evening the Desert Magazine suffered blackened walls from a heating stove fire which was also extinguished by the time the fire department arrived.

The fire a week ago today however, when the newly remodeled home of Mrs. Martha Duncan, president of the local school club, burned to the ground was out of control before the department had a chance to get there. Due to telephone service being disconnected it was over 20 minutes before word got through to the fire department and by then it was too late. The house was temporarily unoccupied.

Mrs. Helen Emery, principal of the local grammar school requests that the parents of her school children call for their report cards on Nov. 18 and 19 between the hours of 2-4. This will give the parent a chance to talk over with the teachers the educational and behavior problems and also get a first hand oral report.

Cathedral Club To Open Season At Big Breakfast

The Woman's club of Cathedral City will open the club season with a breakfast at the Peterson Desert Cove Ranch next Wednesday morning, Nov. 17. Committee Chairman will tell of their plans for the season and members will be given a chance to participate. The ladies are urged to come in Western dress. The board of directors numbering seventeen met for a pot luck supper last Thursday night in the studio at Desert Lodge, Miss Virginia Colville owner of the Palm Springs bookstore was a guest and invited the board to attend a tea at her house on Verbera Lane and E street Sunday afternoon at which Willard Price, noted local author will be honored. His new book "Roving South" is just off the press.

Second Meeting Of Season Held By School Club

The Cathedral City school club held its second meeting of the season in the school house Thursday Nov. 5. It was presided over by the president Mrs. Martha Duncan and the members discussed buying desert pictures to hang in the new classrooms, buying dishes for the use of the club, the need of a school bus and a fence around the school and what can be done to make the crossing of the highway safer. The members voted to buy books for the Den Mothers to use in their Cub Scout work and it was announced that Mr. Earle G. Borden, the field scout executive, whose home is in Desert Hot Springs is in need of three or more local men to work with the cub scouts. They also need two or more Den Mothers and there will be meetings to train these mothers and den fathers in their work. Parents with children between the ages of 9-12 were urged to participate.

Find Lots of Snow In Local Mountains

Postmaster Jack Hillery entertained army service friends, Edward Strickler and Dale Curry of Westwood, Calif., last weekend. After spending sometime in the desert enjoying horseback riding, all three motored to Thomas Mountain and Idyllwild, then on to Banning. They reported they found plenty of snow in the mountains above Banning.

Supervisor Easley Meets With Cathedralites, Tells Plans for Improvements

Supervisor James Easley won merited applause with his instructive talk Tuesday night at a community mass meeting in Town Hall. After each of the directors of the chamber of commerce made his report and special pleas had been made to the supervisor that he personally give help in getting Date Palm road paved to Ramon road and that he would see what the county planning commission could give in assisting in a proposed new park, Easley replied that he could assure the people in this area that both of these things would be done. The surfacing of Date Palm drive has been a project of Bill Hillery's for ten years and he pointed out that this road will be used by the school bus, fire truck and working mento meet the needs of the new subdivisions in the valley area below Cathedral.

L. C. Lewis, president of the chamber of commerce called on each director to tell what had been accomplished by his committee this year and what the plans were for the future. He then asked the members and guests to give help by their constructive criticism and suggestions. Father Leissler suggested that Glenn avenue be made an arterial highway with stop signs from the side roads and Lewis said that he had assurance from the state traffic department that a stop sign would go at Glenn and Broadway, and from E. R. Keith of the county road department that stop signs could be obtained from them for the arterials as the need arose. Paul Clark, publicity chairman, showed the new map folders which give the map of the town and a guide to places of interest in the vicinity.

Lewis said that the chamber of commerce proposed to hold three open meetings a season at which the directors would follow this same procedure and he urged the interest and co-operation of a greater membership in making the events helpful. Following the program, refreshments were served by the house committee and new residents were introduced to old.

Library Affair Is Big Success

Mrs. Marguerite Hillery, chairman of the library board says that the party held last Saturday was well attended with a demand that more parties of this nature be given throughout the season. She wants to thank Carroll Waller for the operation of his loud speaker record system and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sussman for their square dance numbers which kept the spectators amused. Coffee, Sanka and doughnuts were popular refreshments. The party netted $200 which will apply on payment for $1500 debt to chamber of commerce.

Warner Moon is now the first paid Librarian and he urges a greater use of the books in order that this position be kept and more books be obtained from the county. His salary of $60 a month for 60 hours service comes from the county library funds. The library is for the use of short term visitors as well and court owners are asked to tell the Librarian if it will be open Tues., Thurs. and Fridays, 2:30-3:30, Saturday night from 7 to 9.

Sez I---

"Now that Cathedral City has a new subdivision called Sunair which is zoned and offers protection to businesses with money backing it becomes more important than ever that Broadway through Cathedral City business blocks be graded and curbed as a first step towards the improvement of its appearance," says I.

"When there was opposition by some of the property owners on the south side of the highway to the county offer to remove the surplus dirt and use it as fill on 3rd street, then the chamber of commerce dropped its effort to push this needed improvement which E. R. Keith proposed to start right away without cost to the city. The chamber feels that the next move must come from the property owners themselves. The individuals opposing the improvement said that the scraping of the road without immediate provision for curbing would be a waste of time and disrupt business at the height of the season."

"I hear that some of the business men in town have also opposed a bank being built in Sunair on the grounds that where there is a bank there comes opposition, new drug stores, new markets, and that as long as only one bank can be given a charter they want it in the heart of the town regardless of parking facilities or the increased cost of the land which is not protected by zoning from being graded but in the long run they themselves will be the losers because you can't stop progress when it is on the march. We can progress up or down hill but we can't stand still," Sez I.

Catholic Church Party Awaited

The informal discussion class in Cathedral City for adults with the question and answer session following, is meeting a ready response among the non-Catholics and Catholics alike. At present there are four people taking instructions for entrance into the Catholic religion.

The parishioners are all enthused about the big party that is to be held Tuesday, November 23 at 8 o'clock in the parish hall on B street off Glenn. Donation will be $1.00 which will entitle the person to play ten free games. Some five hundred people are expected to be present for the gala affair.

During the coming week, a gas-forced air heater will be stalled in the church to accommodate the people. All of the labor for the installation of the furnace will be donated. Since the large hall is quite bare, any gifts of furniture such as benches, tables and chairs, will be gratefully accepted, from non-Catholics and Catholics alike. During the coming week, Fr. Leissler expects to move to a new residence which will be unfurnished. Since he lacks all types of furniture, gifts for his house will also be welcome. His new address will be announced next week.

Dance Planned As Benefit for Fire Department

Fire Chief Larry Weingartner hopes the second annual fireman's dance will be the biggest and best yet. The dance will be in western motif at the Recreation hall of the De Luxe Trailer court the evening of November 20. Last year the money from the dance was used to purchase equipment for the firemen and $200 of the proceeds went into the building fund for the new firehall. Their goal this year is $1200 which is to be put aside until enough money is raised to purchase our own fire truck and respirator. The present fire truck is provided by the forestry service and is used from Palm Springs Junction to Indian Wells and over to Thousand Palms. Al Sprague is in charge of the dance and the ticket sale.

Dr. Baldwin Heads Local Red Cross

Officers Elected By Village Branch And Plans Discussed

New officers of the Palm Springs branch of Riverside County Red Cross presided at their first meeting of that organization Wednesday morning with Dr. Charles H. Baldwin as the new chairman. He succeeded Hil-ton McCabe.

The new officers were charged with their duties by Mrs. Harold Lienau who opened the meeting in the absence of McCabe and then turned the gavel over to the newly-elected chairman, Dr. Baldwin.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Lienau, vice-chairman; Charles Henderson, treasurer; Robert Peterson, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Katherine Gentry, secretary and Mrs. Ruth Jones Avery, assistant secretary.

Twenty-four directors were elected including McCabe who automatically became a member of that board.

Plans for an intensive campaign to put Palm Springs across its allotted goal in the annual drive for funds are being made. Several committees were appointed by the new chairman the names of which and duties to be performed will be announced later.

Allied Arts Association Maps Buys Plans for Year

A program that should play an important role in the community life of Palm Springs was outlined Monday evening at the first meeting this season of the Allied Arts association. At the Fiesta House on the grounds of the Desert Inn, where all future meetings will take place until a permanent art gallery can be obtained.

The purpose of the organization were reviewed by Chairman Jeanne Coutts for the benefit of the many new members present, and much interest was shown in the programs that are planned for each of the monthly meetings. Next month nationally-known artist George Barker will deliver a lecture on portrait painting, supplemented by colored slides from his collection. Plans are also under way for a mid-season Fine Arts Ball that promises to become one of the most colorful annual affairs in the Village. Proceeds from the Ball will form the nucleus of a working fund with which to carry out the major part of the program—that of bringing to Palm Springs much of the finest talent in the fields of music, art, and literature for concerts and lectures, a need long felt by many local residents.

The organization is open to all those who believe that art and music should form an integral part of community life. Artist members must be passed by jury vote, but lay members are invited as well.

Highlight of the Monday meeting was the announcement of the winners of the National Art Week exhibition of paintings displayed in many store windows along Palm Canyon Drive last week. The jury, composed of well-known California artists John Forsythe, Margaret Johnston, Olive and George Barker and William Krehm, awarded first prize to E. Stewart Williams for his watercolor paintings. Second prize went to Louis Krupp, art instructor at the Palm Springs high school, and third place honors went to Jeanne Coutts. William Darling received a special award for the best desert painting shown during the exhibition.

Uranium Finder Tired of Waiting For U. S. Action

The government is too slow. So Albert V. Marshall is about to call in a mining engineer on his own to see how much uranium he has on his ranch northeast of Cherry Valley—right near property owned by Al E. Hoover, local real estate man. Hoover is definitely interested to see what results Marshall gets.

Next week it will be three months since Marshall sent in the required sample. To date he's received no word, either affirmative or negative.

A RUMOR circulated recently in San Geronimo pass that Marshall had received the $10,000 reward offered by the Atomic Energy Commission for a worthwhile uranium discovery.

Marshall says that definitely is not true. Just after the original uranium flurry in August Marshall was flooded with offers to buy his ranch.

He had it up for sale for $21,500, but withdrew it from the market when he found radioactive ore.

NOW IT APPEARS that he may take someone with the required capital for exploration and development into partnership.

He's still definitely opposed to selling out.

If there's uranium there in paying quantities he expects to be in on the profits.

If there isn't, Marshall hopes to develop deposits of kaolin, a white clay used in firing china and porcelain.

Marshall was hunting gold when he discovered uranium ore.

Visitor in City Jailed After Cafe Argument

John Archibald Robertson, Rancho Mirage and Hemet, was in the city jail Wednesday trying hard to remember what prompted him to threaten patrons in a popular night club with an open knife, "if you call the police," according to Sergeant Orle Johnson and Detective Durman Ordway who took him into custody.

He was booked at the station as an ordinary drunk pending a further investigation of an alleged knife fight in which he was reported to have engaged in previously.

New Supervisors Study Situation

The county's two new supervisors are wasting no time getting acquainted with the jobs they'll take over January 1.

William Jones, who defeated Arthur Weirick in the first district, was a visitor at the sessions Monday, getting a line on how things are done.

William Slape, who won over Chairman Walter Pittman, did not show up at the session, but he accompanied a supervisory election tour two days after his election.

Draft Quota Set At 20 for January

Notice was received this week by county selective service headquarters that the January quota for Riverside had been set at 20. The state quota for the month is 1233.

The county men will be taken from a group of 74 who have been ordered to appear for pre-induction examinations during December.

No dates have been set either for the examinations or delivery of the men to induction centers.

RANCHO RAMBLINGS

Those Rancho Ramblers who attended the Travel and Camera club meeting last Sunday evening, traveled 22,000 miles with the Bob Barclays. Their travels in color and sound were most enthusiastically enjoyed by a great number of Rancho guests. Lee Strobel has been appointed co-chairman of this fine entertainment and the charming lady who greets you is Sylvia Stobel.

Two wedding anniversaries were celebrated on Nov. 4. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Marguard and the George C. Furlones.

Newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Binger H. Sefton of Portland Oregon have arrived to laze in the sun for a few months, as have the Dorey P. Glicks of Seattle. Mrs. Vera Vanya of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of Los Angeles, Col. and Mrs. Walter H. Adams of Glendale. It was way back in 1914 when the Adams first started coming to Palm Springs to vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Moon) Mullens returned to Long Beach to cast their votes and hurried right back to the desert sunshine.

Old timers to arrive are, Ralph and Nettie Dickens who spent some of the summer months at Yellowstone and where they unexpectedly met nine other Rancho Ramblers, Mel and Andra Crowell who say they spent a damp summer at Santa Barbara. And folks have you seen their cleverly landscaped lot on Santa Monica street, at Rancho. Jess McCoy of Santa Barbara was a week-end guest of theirs—and from Chicago to stay until spring came. Tillie Schneider. Here to rest up after a busy summer Mr.

and Mrs. Harry Rogers who left their "Good Luck" resort at Big Bear in charge of their caretakers. From Williams Bay Wisconsin to be welcomed back is Mrs. Lillian Davis. She is a faithful worker of the Community Church. Recent dinner guests of Mrs. Davis in the new Blue Room at Chi Chi were the Ralph Parmelys and the Jack Fletts from Monrovia. It is hoped the Fletts, who are old timers will soon return to join their many friends.

A few days jaunt to Death Valley was enjoyed by Ed and Frances Clements. Georty McBride flew in from San Francisco to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Florence McBride. Mr. McBride is associated with United Air Lines.

A typographical error should be corrected in the last writing of Rancho Ramblings. It is "ROC" Rogers who calls the square dances at Rancho, not Roy Rogers.

Carl (Yogi) Klein who is Bingo-master had a full house at the opening last Monday night, of the Bingo games.

Kelsey Will Go On Liberian Trip

Word has been received by W. R. Hillery that Samuel Kelsey, well known visitor in Cathedral for the past three years and former Alaskan and South African mining engineer, has received an appointment as consulting engineer to Edward Stettin in his Liberian operations. Mr. Kelsey is a brother-in-law of C. K. White, well known winter guest.

Postmaster Again Issues Warning On Yule Deadline

Postmaster R. M. Gorham yesterday reiterated his warning about overseas mail. And this was the last warning.

He reminded Villagers that Nov. 15 was the deadline for sure delivery of Christmas parcels and letters on time in territorial possessions and for overseas. Gorham's warning came with that of Village merchants who reminded their patrons that it isn't too early to plan the Christmas list for far away points.

A lot of concentrated shopping must be done in the next four days by those persons who plan to send parcels overseas for Gorham said that only those overseas packages in the mails by Monday can be certain of delivery by Christmas. Parcels will be accepted after that date, he said, but delivery can not be guaranteed. He pointed out that four to six

Bride-to-be Is Honored At Shower

Miss Doris St. George was honored at a bridal shower given by friends at the auditorium of the Wars Memorial building last week.

Miss St. George, Boston reared and educated and a resident with her parents here for the past six years, will become the bride of Charles A. Lewis, formerly of Los Angeles, and World War II naval veteran on November 24 in Our Lady of Solitude Church with the Rev. Michael O'Connor officiating.

Among those present at the shower were Mesdames, Dorothy Morrison, Abbie Omlin, Gladys Jones, Alyce Vandant, Elizabeth Willis, Ruth DuBoise, Neva Young, Betty Hinton, Thelma Davis, Doris Kreimer, Ruth Prothro, Margaret Thomas, Billie Lufloan, Emma Herndon, Phyllis Leland, Mary Neese, Mildred Morris, Gladys Hall, Mabel Tonne, Hazel Critchlow, George

On the Social Side

Dancing to the music of the popular Vel Tones Saturday evening at the Palm House were, Dr. and Mrs. Burton Adair; Fern White and Jack Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. Sax Sutton; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rinker; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Keal; Laura Warran, Alice Bradbury and Vicki Burk; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jordan from Beverly Hills; Bill and Roma Marvin; Bill Heiser; Alex Henig; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freeman; George Scheeter; and a lot of interesting faces among the welcome visitors.

Houseguests of Johnny Urson over the week-end were Tim Taylor, whose latest picture is "Fighter Squadron," and Harry Mann, an old cow-hand from Evanston, Wyoming.

Dining at the Palm House Thursday evening were Marion

Hutton, singer and sister of Betty, Jimmy Ritz, popular comedian, Lew Holtz, actor, and Mr. and Mrs. William Powell.

Twila King was hostess at a cocktail party Saturday evening in honor of her nephew Gordon Lee Jones Jr. and his fiancée Marilyn C. Holter of Pasadena. Mr. Jones and Miss Holter are to be married November 19 at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Los Angeles. Following the cocktail party the trio had dinner at the Tennis Club.

Here for the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Mathews, was Mrs. Norman Nagel and son Tad, from La Canada.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hanson Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Hayes from Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shearer and daughter Sandra have returned to the Village to reopen their home for the season. The Shearers spent the summer in their home in Seattle.

Visiting their mother Mrs. Bradstreet Miller over the week-end were Barbara and Barry accompanied by Phillip Curran from Pomona, fraternity brother of Barry's, all attend U. C. L. A.

Dr. and Mrs. Mace Gazda left Monday for Chicago, where Dr. Gazda will resume work in the Gazda Clinic. Leaving with the Gazdas are Dr. and Mrs. Donald Sullivan, Village visitors, who plan to be residents next season. Dr. and Mrs. Gazda will return to the Village in February.

Week-end guests for Mrs. Myron Persons of 553 Plaza De Amigo were Mrs. Bruce Safe, wife of Dr. Bruce Safe of Cal Tech and Mrs. Harold Jones of China Lake, California.

Jules DeVorzan, local realtor associated with Peter B. Sheptenko, closed a deal at the Hitching Post to the tune of "Pute-Pute" as played by Slim Gailord Trio. He was seen later at the Chi Chi with Dave Lyons, owner of the Saddle and Sirolo and Bill Wiltor of Sips-n-Snacks, listening to the band play "There's a Small Hotel."

Daisy Love, well known Villager has returned to Palm Springs after spending two years in Washington D. C. Houseguest of Mrs. Love is Mrs. Carol Working from Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Pierce have just moved into their new home at 1616 Calle de Marcus. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce were formerly of Los Angeles and frequent visitors to the Village.

Jack Hawkins, formerly with the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, the Pierre Hotel in N. Y. C., and the Whitehall Hotel in Palm Beach, has joined the staff as Manager of the Palm Springs Biltmore.

Actor Robert Cummins was dining at the fashionable "Town and Country" Sunday.

Doing the Village

with
MOYA HENDERSON

After a busy Western Week, an all night vigil at the radio is not the best way in the world to catch up on sleep yet that is just how many Villagers spent election night. Mrs. Archie Linkletter had several friends in for a bridge party but we imagine the bidding got rather confused with the listening. Dottie and Jack Gorham kept tab on turns via the Town and Country radio. Buck Harris couldn't sit still at the Doll House for running outside to check the radio in his car. And now the die is cast and, no matter what our political opinions might have been, all hatches are by this time buried.

Betty Kieley celebrated her birthday with a festive party at the Desert Inn Wednesday night. After dinner, those guests who lingered in the lounge where supposed to play charades and many a hidden talent was uncovered. There to drink a toast to Betty on her birthday were husband Tom, Louise Schilling, Ruth and Claude Valeur and Alice and Earl Hough. Resting at the Desert Inn this week are Mary and Lynn (Cholly Angelen) Spencer who are always ardent boosters of this desert spa.

Leo Fields, who did so much to make Western Week a success as he does with every community endeavor, manages to do at least ten activities to any one else's one has entered into a new business venture. We wish him luck in his new enterprise. Rand and Field Travel Service located in Beverly Hills.

Dr. and Mrs. James Oliver and daughters Ann and Sue left the Village last week for a visit to Madison, Wisconsin. They timed their vacation so that they would be on hand to help Norma's mother and father celebrate their golden anniversary. The family plan to stay for Thanksgiving before returning home.

Last week's many activities brought back to town two gals who have just this season deserted Palm Springs. Pat Boyer, who has taken a house on Balboa Island and for the winter, was here visiting friends as was Millie McCormick who has changed her residence to Los Angeles. Down from Los Angeles to visit with her family, the Leonard Roths, has been Delores Jeckel anxious to show her fourth month old daughter to all her old friends.

That is not the ark that is parked in Gordon Youngs back yard nor is he getting prepared in the event of another flood. Gordon is getting his recently purchased cabin cruiser in condition this winter so that he can chase bigger and better marlin off Balboa come next summer. May we suggest that he purchase a fool proof compass because even ancient mariners have been known to get lost in a fog.

Billie Moseley came home from Redlands Sunday night with a nice big shiny trophy for winning first place in the Trail Horse class at the Redlands Mounted Police Gymkhana. She rode her new stallion, J. B.

Sun, Desert Bring Many To La Quinta

Winter sunshine on the desert at Hotel La Quinta is the ever-popular vacation locale for Californians and easterners alike. Enjoying leisure vacations from the Hollywood motion picture colony are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Spitz taking in the sun for a few days rest from executive duties at Universal Studios, orchestra-director John Scott Trotter back again for a second visit, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Shane and Charles and Mary Schnee, actress Marguerite Chaman, and orchestra-leader Garwood Van and his wife Kay. From Cape Cod, Maine, for a desert sojourn were Mrs. Lucy Hill Payne and young son George, and from Madison, Wisconsin were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Davis who were joined over the week-end by Dudley Davis Jr., from Alameda. From Beverly Hills the past week were Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and daughter Miss Mary Armstrong, Mrs. Ruth Gombert and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. George Wiltner and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Smith of El Camino drive.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Kindel of Santa Barbara arrived at the hotel's private landing strip in their own plane for several days stay at Hotel La Quinta.

Indian Lure Told D.A.R.

The Cahulla chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution met at the home of Miss Agnes Pelton in Cathedral City last week with ten members and four visiting Daughters present. In the absence of Regent Mrs. Cecile McCarty, Vice Regent Mrs. Wiltor presided.

Applications for eight new members were accepted into the chapter.

An invitation to any D.A.R. who is in the Palm Springs vicinity, to visit the chapter at its next meeting December 2 at the home of Mrs. Reynard Joseph, 1401 El Alameda, was extended. Delightful refreshments were served by Miss Pelton and Mrs. Wiltor, co-hostess, after a splendid talk on Indians, in general, by Curt Ring of the Kiva shop in Rancho Mirage. He brought an interesting group of rugs and jewelry to display some of their work.

Dancing to the music of Pat Barbara and his orchestra at the Racquet Club Saturday evening were Jan King, Al Ziskin, Mary Taylor and Lee Woods. Pat Barnham, columnist with the Herald Express, Collin McArthur, and Lou Jehlinger with Dave Bixler.

EARLY ACTIVITY—Jo Sawyer, well-known tennis pro at Hotel La Quinta, finds early season action lively on the popular courts of the famed desert resort, with screen actress Marguerite Chapman who has been vacationing there the past week. Sawyer reports the star swings a "gallant racket" with the same smooth performance as her new picture "Gallant Blade." (Photo by Finn.)

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Lippman entertained their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Conrad F. Bryant and their daughters Beverly and Cheryl and friend Bill Webb from North Hollywood over the week-end.

Michael Jenkins celebrated his eighth birthday last Thursday with a dinner party for his little friends. Helping him with the cake, ice cream and all the rest were Joan and Peter Reed, Travis Caldwell, Mary Sprague, Marilyn and Rickie Straus.

Noted Investigator Will Address Local Club Women

Raymond C. Schindler, director of the Schindler Bureau of Investigation and international private eye will be the speaker at the second meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's Club Monday. Mr. Schindler promises to give club members the low down on his many experiences in solving criminal cases and the interesting things that have happened because of his many philanthropic activities.

Mr. Schindler is probably best known in this country for his work on the Sir Harry Oaks murder mystery. In this case Mr. Schindler was employed by Nancy Oakes de Marigny to uncover evidence to free her husband Alfred de Marigny accused of the crime of murdering his father-in-law.

More recently and unknown to the general public he has been active in cooperating with Earle Stanley Gardner world famous writer of detective fiction in securing the liberation of Mr.

Keyes of Keyes Ranch. This and other philanthropic activities are the source of material for a series of articles in the magazine Argosy.

Mr. Schindler is well known to many Villagers and a number of parties have been planned in his honor. He is flying to Palm Springs from New York at his own expense and is speaking without the usual compensation as a compliment to program chairman Mrs. Robert Ransom.

Prominent in the Life of the Village

At the top, left are Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Purnel and daughter, Elanne. They have been Villagers for the past 12 years and are co-owners of Hatchett's Grocery. Mr. Purnel is a Mason, a member of the chamber of commerce, a past-president of the Los Compadres and a past-director of the Lions club. He also is co-owner of a dude ranch in the High Sierras. Mrs. Purnel is a member of the Woman's club and Los Compadres and is Guardian of Job's Daughters in the Eastern Star. Elanne is honored queen-elect of Job's Daughters and also has one of the leads in the senior play "Nine Girls" at the high school.

Upper right is Mrs. Thomas Malouf of Beverly Hills. She is the sister of Mrs. William Malouf of Palm Springs. Mrs. Malouf is chairman of the Fashionettes in Los Angeles where they had a recent show in the Crystal Room at the Beverly Hills hotel. She has always been an artist at heart and is, at the present time, doing some portrait painting.

Lower left are the Leo Bakors, co-owners of Sam and Leo's. Donald and Joan are twins, freshmen at Palm Springs high school, and have just celebrated their 14th birthday. Mr. Baker is vice-president of the Lions club, vice-president of the Jewish Community Center, on the board of directors of Palm Springs chamber of commerce, board of directors of the Youth Center, and is active in the Community Chest work. Mrs. Baker is vice-president of the Jewish Women's group, on the board of directors of the American Red Cross and also is a nurse's aide.

and will return after the holidays with their two boys, Robin, 6, and Gregory, 4. Mrs. Gazda belongs to the Woman's club and they are also members of the Tennis Club.

And then there are Bill and Roma Marvin, lower right, with their son, Kirk, age 4. He is owner of the Palm Springs Sporting Goods Store, and she owns Roma's, the ladies sportswear shop in The Center. He is a member of the Junior chamber of commerce, American Legion and Veteran of Foreign Wars. She stages fashion shows at the Tennis Club throughout the season and this year will have shows at the new Town and Country on Tuesdays. She is a Girl Scout leader and they are members of the Tennis Club.

Racquet Club Plays Host To Throngs

Villagers rubbed shoulders with the brightest stars of stage, screen and industry over the week-end at Charley Farrell's Racquet Club.

Among those present there for dinner in the crowded dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colborn, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Milnor, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Newcomer, Mr. and Mrs. William Dougherty, the Barney Hinkles, Don Manchesters, Lee Berings, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Outcault, Sol Lesser, Milt Hicks and many others.

Others seen in the crowd and guests at the club were Mrs. Margaret Robin of New York and Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Silverman, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb, yatchman from Bel Air, Carol Tracey, brother of Spencer, Producer-director William Perlberg and wife, Jimmy Ritz, and Dick Haymes.

It wasn't all play and tennis for Fred Brisson, husband of Rosalind Russell. He was there conferring with writers working on the next picture he is to produce. Edmund Goulding, director, his mother and sister were there, too. Barney Glaser, motion picture writer was seen in deep conversation with friends.

Louis Holtz appeared on the scene and instantly became the target of light, banter which he returned with alacrity. Dick Haymes guested a group at dinner and cocktails.

When Uncle Joe Schenck appeared he instantly became the center of a group who arose from their tables to greet the patriarch of motion picture.

Jewish Women Open Season

Business and a delightful program marked the first meeting of the Palm Springs Jewish Women's group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonoff last week.

Twelve new members were inducted into the society and, after luncheon, Mrs. Sylvia Leventhal of Los Angeles presented an interesting talk on youth and adult education.

The Desert Sun—9

Mrs. Whitehorn Hostess At Merry Election Wake

"Put it in a box, tie it with a ribbon and throw it in the deep blue sea."

That song, so popular last summer, in which a way to get rid of the blues was set to music, might well have been the theme song Tuesday as Mrs. James Whitehorn, well known state Republican leader entertained at the Tennis Club.

Eighteen guests were present to organize a Republican Optimists group with much banter and ribbing as the results of the late, lamented election were reviewed.

The tables were appropriately decorated, the center piece being a sleeping elephant with a rooster and a hen trying to awaken him.

Enjoying the fun and all of the laughs were Mrs. Nellie Coffman, Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Mrs. Oliver Jaynes, Mrs. Fredrick Coulton, Mrs. Louis Rose, Mrs. Frank Bennett, Mrs. Austin McManus, Mrs. William Malouf, Mrs. Harold Murphy, Mrs. Albert Peck, Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Mrs. Don Peake, Mrs. Walter McManus, Miss Muriel Fulton, Mrs. Frank Davies, Mrs. John Costello, Mrs. Newton Hotchkiss, Mrs. R. F. Graettinger and Mrs. Mary Booker.

PALM VALLEY With DON CAMERON

Wonder Palms officially opened last Friday, although the place has been packed for a week. Among the guests, the Casey Stengels, Manning Posts, Howard Bands, Harry Cants, Lou Tavaks, Mary Dee, Morris Landau, Lou Holtz and C. Edward Jones. Esther McGee told me that the local folks are more than welcome at dinner and to enjoy dancing to the Latin rhythm of the Three Caballeros. Spotted there over the week-end: the Paul Grimms, Al Aggazonis, Dave Culver, owner of Rancho Mirage, Gene Dorsey of Calalero (he's the guy who flameproofs all these cocktail lounges), the Earl Strebles, Marc Saxer and Miss Phil Landon, Bob Daly with Maxine Gearhart, Marj Pohl dancing with Chico Marx. Vernon Peck with that gorgeous dark-eyed doll Lorraine Peck and Herb Pritzlaff with Edith Eddy Ward.

KATHARINE HARPER threw a surprise cocktail party for her husband, Lyle, on his birthday last Sunday in the patio of their home on East Veldt. He is the owner of the popular Mirage Plaza Apartments. Helping him celebrate were Ted Hutchinson, Don Admiral, Harry Holt, Miss Mary Sprague, Mrs. Lola Lee Hull, Mrs. Margaret Ward, the Ralph Piersons, Ed Ewerts, Herb Truexes, Jim Ramsays, Frank Ryans, Ray Kelleys, Col. and Mrs. Bob Ellsworth and the Fred Loomises.

Opal Lewis opened her Chafing Dish Cafe in Palm Village Saturday night and plans to serve turkey and baked ham dinners. Oscar Hurley, the popular owner of the Palm Village Guest Cottages, flies down from Pasadena in his Escoupe, lands on one of the streets in Palm Desert, taxis across the highway and parks it in his back yard. John Harnish blossomed out with a new real estate tract—to be known as Rancho Panorama under the supervision of Virginia Gambogi, his attractive sales co-ordinator. Paved roads and utilities are now being installed. Miss Gambogi formerly was with Armstead and Associates of Pasadena.

LAST SUNDAY EVENING, at the Desert Museum, our own Ted Hutchinson talked about how to plant and take care of desert plants in your own garden. Following that he told several stories about our plants, even to the one that will tighten teeth. He had a bowl of desert holly there for people to taste so that they could see how it goes in salad. Last Friday evening about six, the Wini Duncan home on a 15 acre date ranch west of Hank Gogerty's was completely demolished by fire which occurred, it is believed, through faulty wiring.

Among the recent buyers at Rancho Mirage are Howard and Virginia Reynolds of Fredonia, New York. Bunny Steele sold them two beautiful view lots in the Estates and housed them temporarily in the Karna Shields house next to Frank Morgan's, while they build their new home.

Stopped by—Roy Randolph with a beautiful dish—Estelle Mann, Dr. Jack C. Hill, formerly of Palm Springs and now at Lake Arrowhead. Hollywood Reporter's Jack Hadley with his wife Virginia and Mrs. Angela Springs, Eastside Breweries' F. A. McCabe and wife Dorothy. The J. Ward Cohens. She was Jackie Saunders of the stage. Dr. Joseph A. and the gorgeous Doris D'Alessio—down to open their new offices in Palm Springs. The William H. Barrys of the publishing company by the same name in San Francisco.

DOWN FOR THE WEEKEND: Earl Nittinger at his Rancho Iron Gate. The William Reichels at Rancho Escondido with Senator Bill and Helen Nolan, and Oakland Tribune's Russ and Norma Nolan. The Harold F. Whittle's Sr., getting settled in their new home in Rancho Mirage. The Myron Roots, he's Medford, Oregon. No. 1 pear shipper (owns Crater Lake Orchards) Duke (gag writer for Bob Burns) Atteberry and wife Irene, sunbathing by the Rancho Mirage pool. Ron and Gladys Button hosting State Assemblyman Philip Boyd at their beautiful new home on San Geronimo road. Down to market their date crop on Rancho Manana, the Howard Burdicks—she was the former Lucille Morrison.

Each fighting man in the Navy consumes over a ton of food yearly; each ton requires 60 cubic feet of shipping space, about ten times the storage space of a standard home refrigerator.

The point system for measuring type originated in France in 1737.

Arabs Clash With Indian Grids Tonight

An old-time rivalry will be renewed tonight when Palm Springs high and Coachella clash on the local gridiron in the Indians' fifth Riverside County loop game. Following tonight's struggle they have two more games, a loop tussle with Perris and the annual Thanksgiving Day game with Blythe.

The Indians have met all of the toughies in the league and their remaining two games are with teams below them in loop standings.

COACHELLA'S ARABS have had a hard season to date and in four games played have failed to crack the win column or even gain a tie.

The Indians are practically in the same boat, having dropped three of their four loop games and tied one.

But they have a victory over one of the title contenders—San Jacinto—in a non-loop game to their credit and are favored tonight to break into the league win column.

A WEEK FROM tonight Perris high comes here. Perris rates with Coachella in the totally defeated column not having won a game this year.

Coach C. E. Ballagh is hopeful that his team will wind up the loop season with two victories and gain a 7 point standing in the race.

Tonight's game is at 8 o'clock and the stands are expected to be full.

OTHER GAMES tonight stack Hemet against San Jacinto in the game which will probably decide this season's RCL champion. Neither team has lost a game in four league starts although San Jacinto was tied once—by Beaumont, the team that the Indians tied in a 6-6 battle.

Fast Play Marks Tennis Tourney at Racquet Club

Mixed doubles in a round-robin tennis tournament climaxed a week of play at the Racquet Club Sunday afternoon drawing into the game the big names of screen, stage and industry playing before a gallery crowded into every inch of room on the sidelines.

Norman Panama teamed with Evelyn Keyes won the tournament. In five matches played they won 29 out of thirty games. Frank Spiegel and Melvan Frank were the runner-ups.

Participating in the tournament were Mrs. Bill (Mousie) Powell and Pat Nearney; Marcia Panama and Jimmy Ritz; Mona Freeman and Steve Olds; Polly Gottlieb and Dick Haymes, in addition to the winners.

Dave Gillam, pro at the club who arranged the matches, umpired the games.

On other courts of the Club, single and double matches were under way at the same time and among the fast players were Paul Lukas, Charlie Farrell, Harry Plymire, Frank Feltrop, Roy Evans, Barbara Green, protegee of the Beverly-Wilshire, Jane Stanton, ranking Southern California player, Alex Gottlieb, Willis Hunt Jr., and Jack Orr who, by the way, is Jack Warner's son-in-law.

Benefit Football Tomorrow Night

Villagers will see an excellent football game tomorrow night and also aid a worthy cause when they go to Palm Springs high gridiron to watch the local Junior varsity tangle with Micky Finn's boys.

The visiting team is from the club Finn, Los Angeles policeman, organized among the boys on his beat.

It used to be a tough beat but Finn, spending his own policeman's salary for incidentals, organized the kids into a recreational club, turning their energy into wholesome sports and soon his beat was one of the quietest.

When his work became known others chucked in to help. Tomorrow night's game is along that line and half the gate will go entirely toward the club.

Micky Finn has been a repeated visitor to Palm Springs and is well known in the Village.

Hilarious Night Marks Rally of Business Women

The Youth Center was a scene of hilarity Monday night when the Business Women's Club staged its annual White Elephant auction. The sale was a great success and the club more than reached the goal set by the president, Mrs. Mildred Veanno.

Money derived from the event goes into the club's welfare fund. Entertainment was furnished by the impersonators, Jimmie Bridget and Mary Dracsko. Highest bidder for the "Big in a Poke" was Theresa Fortunato.

Anti-Vivisection Bill Planned

Plans for the 1950 election were already under way in the county —by one group, at least. Petitions will soon be circulated to place an anti-vivisection measure on the ballot. It is planned to have the petitions completed by Nov. 20 and they will be circulated here as well as in other portions of the county. The ballot is sponsored by a Los Angeles group.

Quail Watering Spas Completed

Board of supervisors Tuesday were notified by the state division of fish and game that three quail watering holes have been completed in the San Jacinto area.

The cost was $344 paid for out expenses collected for game law violations.

Next program will be the San Geronio pass area.

Moving Picture Shows Planned

The house committee of the chamber of commerce announces that it has completed arrangements for leasing the Town Hall Saturdays and Sundays to a Long Beach firm who will operate a 16 mm. film and provide a local moving picture show on Friday nights and Saturday. There will be a Saturday matinee with special pictures suitable for children. When the hall is being used for community affairs on Saturday evening then the shows will be given on Sunday instead. Doors and locks on the Town Hall have been changed so that they meet the safety requirements.

This dinner meeting in Palm Springs has become an annual event and is looked forward to by the association. A large number of members and their guests are expected to attend.

Youth Authority Addresses Lions

Judge William McKesson, of Los Angeles superior court, addressed Palm Springs Lions at the Desert Inn yesterday on "Boys."

Work with juveniles has been one of the main projects of the local club and Judge McKesson's talk proved highly interesting. Judge E. E. Theriault was program chairman for the day.

Approve Contracts For Two Teachers

Board of trustees of Palm Springs unified school district Tuesday, approved contracts for two new employees.

Ray O. Beezley was approved as teacher of United States history at the high school, replacing John A. Davis who was recalled

County Tightens Up on Yule Cheer

The county isn't going all out this year to spread Christmas cheer.

At Monday's session supervisors informed the Riverside chamber of commerce that the county could pay only $250 as its share of Yule decorations along its main street front.

The chamber has asked $375 based on what business men were paying for the same service.

No Damage in Fire

A rubbish fire that threatened to get out of control on an empty lot, resulted in firemen making a run to El Alameda and Avenida de Los Palo Verdes at 8:33 p. m. Tuesday. The blaze was extinguished without damage.

New Church Born In Desert Area East of Village

Dr. John Robertson Macartney's plans for quiet retirement after more than a half century in the pulpit went awry this month but he is happy about it.

He left the status of "pastor emeritus" to take charge of the newest church in the desert area, the Shadow Mountain Community church in the Palm Desert area.

THE CHURCH was born October 31 with special services. Sponsoring it are Clifford Henderson, G. A. Chapman and Stephen Rutgers, all of the Palm Desert community.

Dr. Macartney's new parish will extend from Rancho Mirage to La Quinta including the developments which are taking place up and down the upper end of Coachella Valley.

There being no place of public worship between Cathedral City and Indio, a distance of nearly twenty miles, the promoters of Palm Desert, Palm Village and the numerous nearby settlements were prompted to take immediate steps for the establishing of the church.

AS TEMPORARY quarters an army barracks is being conditioned and prepared for the initial service which will be held on Thanksgiving Day at 10 a. m. Already notices have been sent out to the 600 members of the Shadow Mountain Club and the residents up and down the valley, informing them of this addition to the spiritual and religious needs of all within this area.

A community church, planned along the same lines as the one in Palm Springs which has had such a successful career under the guiding hand of Dr. Macartney and now continuing under the inspiring leadership of the Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr., is contemplated for the Shadow Mountain area.

Incorporation Of Community Church is Told

Community Church of Palm Springs has been incorporated this Fall under the laws of the State of California. R. M. Trezvant contributed his legal services to the action.

George B. Davis is chairman of the board of trustees of the corporation.

Home-Coming Set For Next Tuesday

Tuesday evening at 7:45 p. m. Community church will hold its annual Fall Homecoming reception. This delightful evening of cordial fellowship within formal reminiscences of summer experiences is always a highlight of the season's program. Several musical selections will be rendered by talented artists from among the membership. Members and friends of the church will have an opportunity to go through the new additions to the church buildings and see the progress that was made during the summer months.

Hostesses for this occasion will be the wives of the members of the board of elders of the church. All friends who are interested in the program and fellowship of the Community church are extended a hearty invitation.

Health Clinics Under Survey

Four new health clinics in the county, such as now exists in Palm Springs, are under study by supervisors today. Dr. Robert E. Westphal was authorized to enter into an agreement with Hemet officials on establishment of a health center there.

Perris, Elsinore and Corona are next on the program.

When arrangements are made there will be nine in the county. The arrangement with Palm Springs was one of the first on the county records.

St. Paul's Guild To Meet Tuesday

The guild of St. Paul's in the desert will meet on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Sawyer, Smoke Tree Ranch at 11 o'clock. There will be a business meeting in the morning followed by luncheon at which the members will be the guests of Mrs. Sawyer. In the afternoon there will be sewing. It is hoped that the president, Mrs. John S. Lapp will arrive from New York in time to preside.

Timber to be Sold

More than 2,000,000,000 board feet of timber, on the Quinalt Indian reservation, north of Hoquiam, Wash., will go on sale in the near future, the Interior Department announced, says a National Association of Real Estate Boards report.

Financial Security

Loan your money... secured by First Trust Deeds... on new homes in amounts of $5000 or more... I will pay 6% interest and give a bonus in the form of a working interest... In this way you can receive the full earning power of your funds... All transactions handled through Pioneer Title Insurance & Trust Company, of San Bernardino.

Second in Series At Community Church Sunday

At the 11 a. m. service at Community church, the Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr. pastor, will preach the third in a series of sermons on "Christ's Message to His Church." These messages are based on the seven letters which are found in the early chapters of the book of Revelation. This Sunday the subject will be "Perseverance—the Church at Satan's Capital."

The Chancel Choir will sing the anthem, "Hosanna, Blessed is He." A nursery is conducted during the worship hour for small children.

Junior high and senior young people will meet for their regular Christian Endeavour meeting at 6:15 in the church parlor.

In the evening service the high school men's chorus and the high school girls' chorus will sing under the leadership of Director Mitchell.

Women's Circle In Busy Session

Members and friends of the Women's Circle met in the new church parlor of the Community church last Tuesday and spent a busy but enjoyable afternoon sewing, crocheting, knitting and embroidering articles to be sold at the forthcoming bazaar. The devotionals were rendered by Mrs. Rass Blemling.

All announcements were made for several chain luncheons which are to be held in the near future.

Mrs. William A. Lippman, president, spoke briefly on the large turnout for the meeting, also plans for the bazaar.

Tea and cake were served by hostesses Mrs. Donald Lockett, Mrs. Anna Petry, Mrs. John C. Langtry, Mrs. Fay E. Brainard, Mrs. Fern Jones, Mrs. La Dage, Mrs. Simonson and Mrs. Pearson.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday Nov. 23 in the new church parlor. "Please bring your white elephants to this meeting as it will be the last one before the bazaar which is to be December 7 in the Fiesta House on the Desert Inn grounds," Mrs. Lippman urged.

Christian Science Text
"Mortals and Immortals"
"If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live." Paul's declaration to the Romans will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson—Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

A Bible passage from Luke relates that "There was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "A grain of Christian Science does wonders for mortals, so omnipotent is Truth, but more of Christian Science must be gained in order to continue in well doing." "Mortals obtain the harmony of health, only as they forsake discord, acknowledge the supremacy of divine Mind, and abandon their material beliefs."

Believe Chances To Acquire Land For Park Bright

Chances that Palm Springs' application for the purchase of more than 22 acres of former Torney general hospital lands for park purposes now pending with War Assets Administration, are brighter, City Manager William E. Alworth believes today. He made this opinion public following an all-day conference and inspection of the city's park needs with E. M. Hilton, planner for the National Park Service, San Francisco. Hilton was sent here by WAA to investigate this city's need for a park.

Coffman Gets Preview of Future Battles

Earl Coffman had a four day peek into the manner in which future naval battles may be fought. A guest of the Secretary of War with other southland residents and accompanied by Lynn Spencer, Los Angeles newspaper columnist, Coffman spent four

Museum Notes

Subject to be discussed at tonight's session of the current biology series will be spiders, scorpions and crabs, accompanied by two films: "Arthropoda" and "Annelid Worms." This program is presented in a popular vein and is open to the public without charge at 8 p. m.

Tomorrow's field trip will be a nature walk to Tahquitz Falls, and will include less than three miles of easy trail walking, round-trip. Anyone interested in going on this hike meet at the museum at 10:30 a. m.; return at 3. Bring lunch.

TOMORROW NIGHT Edwin F. Walker, noted anthropologist from the Southwest Museum, will present a talk entitled "Our American Indian Heritage." This interesting lecture is at 8 p. m.

There will be no program at the museum Monday night, November 15, Tuesday at 8 p. m., the natural history films will be: "Pirates of the Deep," "Congo Curiosities," "Wild Man's Land," "Time-lapse Studies of Flowers," and "Strategic Materials."

Next Thursday, November 18, the music appreciation group will meet again. The life and music of Edvard Grieg will be the subject of this program, and recordings of his compositions will be played. This program Mr. Jupe will be in charge.

days aboard the aircraft carrier Antietam on battle maneuvers on the Pacific out of San Diego.

His return to shore was quite a thrill for Coffman. He and Spencer boarded a helicopter on the deck of the carrier and were flown for several miles to shore.

Farm and Water Needs to be Seen By Congressmen

Water and transportation problems typical of California agriculture will get a personal introduction to a party of some 25 members of the house of representatives agricultural committee when they begin a week-long tour of the state in Riverside Sunday.

The congressional visit will begin with a dinner assembly at the Mission Inn, where the committee members will join Representative John Phillips for a visit to the Imperial and Coachella Valleys Monday.

Officials of the Coachella Valley County Water district will guide the party on a tour of the gardens when they travel by bus along the Palm Springs-Indio highway Monday. After a lunch at El Centro, the congressmen will visit Imperial Valley and the border towns of Calexico and Mexicali.

Monday's schedule ends at a dinner in the Coachella Water district office in the evening, and the committee members will join their wives, who will travel in a separate bus later in the day, at the Desert Inn here. The entire party of some 40 persons will spend the night in Palm Springs.

to his teacher, Miss Bankhead at Cahulla school. His dad, "Slim" Moorten, expert on desert flora—and that means plants—says there are several varieties of cactus apples, all take a nice polish and all are delicious to eat. But I'm laying off. I'm the kind of guy who gets the only pit in a cherry pie or the solitary bone in a fish. I'd get the lone spike.

COGITATING WITH CUGAT: Princess Elizabeth and her expected offspring are really making the public prints these days. With all of the publicity she is getting, wonder if they'll television the event? ... Where do people get those manners? ... Walked behind two neatly dressed women the other day. ... One was reading a letter as she walked. ... Apparently didn't want anyone else to see it for when she got through, she carefully tore it into little bits—and dropped the bits one by one on the sidewalk. ... Maybe she was just playing Cops and Robbers or Hares and Hounds or whatever it is kids play that way. ... She certainly left a trail. ... I'd like to be in her living room without an ash tray. ... People do nifty things with aplomb. ... One woman once took all of the comic books off a local news rack, spread them on the sidewalk, seated her little darling in the middle and calmly took movies while the people had to walk around. ... And then got mad when the owner of the store remonstrated. ... "Such hospitality!"

CONKY IS IN again. ... He's made Look, The Saturday Evening Post and other national mags with his letters but never made Life until last week. ... That was with a query about Billiken, the God of things as they ought to be. ... Billiken used to be popular and it looks as if Conky had revived them. ... Since the Life letter appeared, Conky's mail has been flooded with mail from coast to coast from people who also remember the fat little image. ... In fact, Conky is now calling himself the Hill-Billiken. ... Don Corey, mimic at the Chi Chi had himself a treat the other night. ... He was doing a Jimmy Durante number when he noticed that his most enthusiastic listener was Durante, in person. ... "Stupendous," said Schnozzle. ... "Better than I am myself."

SOME TIME ago I remarked that it was a shame Palm Springs did not have a song. ... Like Kokomo, Miami, 29 Palms and a raft of other cities. ... Lots of music came in from local song writers as a result. ... Among them is one which just came out a week ago: "Heaven in the Desert" sub-titled, "The Palm Springs Song." ... It's by Ray Littell of Palm Village and is easy to listen to. ... Gwen Bari over at the Desert Inn has been playing it and getting many comments. ... All favorable. ... Which remind me that Gene and Gwen Bari are back at the Inn and delighting the guests and Villagers as they always have. ... Another boost for the Village. ... The Santa Fe has beautiful folders printed and distributed in the east showing how to get here via their Diesel fleet.

THIS SEEMS to be about as good a place to get off as any. ... That next to the last key in the bottom row is sneering at me so I guess I'll swat it. There it is, the period.

Thirty Million Americans Will Be Going to Church This Week

This week thirty million Americans will attend services of the churches and synagogues of the nation. Each in his own way will be showing his faith in God, the same faith on which our forefathers founded this nation. All of us need that faith. It can give us the strength and purpose necessary for these times. Without faith hope is lost; with it, we can find peace and happiness.

Faith in God and the Spiritual values of life are essential to these times. Faith can conquer fear and guide us to personal and world peace. In faith, we can find strength and courage for these days.

The churches of Palm Springs, representing many faiths, invite both Villagers and Visitors to enjoy the service of their choice next Sunday. Information about the churches and their religious services appears elsewhere in this newspaper.

Live Up to Your Faith ATTEND CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

This message is sponsored by a winter resident of Palm Springs who believes that America needs a revival of spiritual faith to meet present day problems.
